Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Telephone _____ E-mail _____

High school and city _____ Graduation Date _____

- Include theatre résumé (recommended) and head shot if applicable (recommended).
- Briefly list production experience: include design, technical, and or administrative roles.

- Performance applicants in acting and directing will have a 10-minute time slot for their audition and interview. The first three minutes will be designated for the audition, and the following seven minutes for the interview. Applicants should prepare two contrasting 90-second monologues (comic and dramatic, or classic and contemporary). Applicants interested in musical theatre also have an option of including a 32-bar musical theatre song in place of one of their monologues. The total time for both pieces should be no longer than three minutes. Direct questions regarding audition materials to professor Ben Tissell (btissell@georgefox.edu)

- Design / Technical and Stage Management applicants will have a 20-minute time slot for their portfolio review and interview. Designers should bring a portfolio of materials representing their work (design statements, photographs, drafting, sketches, renderings, models, etc.) to the interview. Technical theatre, business or management students should prepare a narrative explaining your experience and interest in your particular fields of theatre. If materials are available, these students are encouraged to bring their portfolios as well. Direct questions regarding portfolio materials to professor Bryan Boyd (bboyd@georgefox.edu)

Anticipated Major: _____

Anticipated Minor: _____ (preference given to students declaring a theatre minor)

In order to continue receiving the scholarship, recipients must be involved in at least two of our main-stage productions each year (acting, design, set, costume, run-crew, administrative, etc.), participate in weekly Theatremakers meetings when their class schedule allows, and maintain a 3.0 GPA.
